COLLEGE PLANNING

POLICY 2.3.2

The College shall maintain an ongoing planning process. In the College planning model, institutional effectiveness is the overall effort to determine how well the College achieves its mission and vision. A number of effectiveness indicators are used to evaluate the quality of programs and services. At a minimum, the College's plans shall address program and facility needs; shall include the College's mission, goals and objectives, consistent with the mission of the System and with the State Board's priorities; and shall provide for evaluation of student outcomes.
