A dependent student whose parent(s) have ended financial support and refuse to provide FAFSA information may only receive the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan. The Financial Aid Office will make a determination based upon the documentation submitted and the request may be approved in certain circumstances. The decision made by the Financial Aid Office is final, and may not be appealed to the Department of Education.

Do you wish to be considered for the Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan ONLY?

- YES, I understand I will not be considered for any federal grants, subsidized loans, or the work-study program. In addition, I understand I will not be considered for any state or institutional grants or scholarships that require me to demonstrate financial need (See parent section below).
- NO, I wish to be considered for other types of aid and will provide parental information on the FAFSA. I understand my file will not be processed until I have provided the parent information on the FAFSA.

Note to Student: If you meet the conditions shown in the Parent Section but your parent will not sign this form, you may have a third party (e.g., teacher, counselor, clergy, and/or court) submit a statement of support who is familiar with your situation and is able to describe the relationship with your parents. The supporting document must be on appropriate letterhead and signed to be accepted or from a work related email that references a professional capacity.
